Hands-on History Deals for Homeschooling Families Offered Sept. 8-23

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. – (Aug. 14, 2018) Fall Homeschool Days offer homeschoolers and their families special deals on admission and interactive program experiences designed to make history come alive Sept. 8-23.

Homeschoolers can create their own Colonial Williamsburg itineraries any day of the year, however Single-day and Multiday admission tickets granting access to Historic Area exhibition buildings, gardens, trades and the Art Museums of Colonial Williamsburg are available during the offer with an advance reservation at a saving of up to more than 75 percent off retail. Visits can be tailored to include on-site dining, 18th century-style tavern meals, evening entertainment and lodging. Homeschool Days pass holders qualify for special rates at the Williamsburg Woodlands Hotel & Suites.

Special ticketed programs offered during Fall Homeschool Days include opportunities to explore S.T.E.M. through historic trades, live the life of a militia soldier, learn manners and dancing from Martha Washington, witness the birth of American Independence at the fifth Virginia Convention, discover Colonial Williamsburg's rare breeds programs, retrace Thomas Jefferson's footsteps, publish your own story with Clementina Rind and play colonial games.

To receive the Homeschooler discount, tickets must be purchased in advance online. For more information, visit colonialwilliamsburg.com/homeschoolers. All sales are final. Special rates are available year round for homeschool groups of all sizes in addition to a wide variety of books, DVDs and other teaching resources.

The Colonial Williamsburg Foundation preserves, restores and operates Virginia's 18th-century capital of Williamsburg. Innovative and interactive experiences highlight the relevance of the American Revolution to contemporary life and the importance of an informed, active citizenry. The Colonial Williamsburg experience includes more than 400 restored or reconstructed original buildings, renowned museums of decorative arts and folk art, extensive educational outreach programs for students and teachers, lodging, culinary options from historic taverns to casual or elegant dining, the Golden Horseshoe Golf Club featuring 45 holes designed by Robert Trent Jones and his son Rees Jones, a full-service spa and fitness center, pools, retail stores and gardens. Philanthropic support and revenue from admissions, products and hospitality operations sustain Colonial Williamsburg's educational programs and preservation initiatives.
