

An American Tea

Christiana Campbell's Tavern

Every 1st and 3rd Saturday from May 20th until September 16th 2017

1 p.m. until 3 p.m.

Maximum attendance of 75 guests; $39.99 per guest

Families are invited to join us this spring and fall at Christiana Campbell's Tavern for a traditional mid-day tea event. Guests are asked to come and share a special blend of tea, created just for his event, and to share snippets of mid-day fare with their dolls and other guests.

As the guests enter the tavern, they will be greeted by Mrs. Campbell and her Felicity doll. Guests will be escorted to their private dining rooms, and welcomed to this special occasion. At each place setting there will be a map of Colonial Williamsburg, and "A Day in the Life of Felicity: Scavenger Hunt", coloring paper.

As the special tea service starts, Mrs. Campbell will be giving formal training as how to act as a young gentlewoman of the colony. As the tea service continues, Mrs. Campbell will share more stories about Felicity and her make believe adventures. The guests will learn about the buildings on Duke of Gloucester and how Felicity would play, and visit each one of the colonial shops, gardens and homes.

After tea, guests will be asked to participate in a scavenger hunt; trying to find items and specific locations that Felicity would have visited, and/or used during the course of a day back in 1774. The guests are encouraged to complete the hunt and find everything on the list. Upon completion, the guest may redeem the completed list and receive their specially engraved Felicity cookie tray at the William Pitt store.
